

FROM THE DESK OF THE CHIEF OF POLICE

POLICE DEPARTMENT GETS NEW MEMBERS

The Lake Tansi Police Department recently hired two new officers to fill two vacancies. We would like to introduce them to you.

Patrolman Dustin Hoff

Dustin Hoff came to the Department in August 2022. Dustin has lived in Cumberland County about a year and moved here from the state of Oregon. He grew up in Carlton Oregon and graduated from the Yamhill-Carlton High School. He received higher education at Pioneer Pacific College. Dustin brings a lot of law enforcement experience to the department. He has worked with the Yamhill County Sheriff's Office, Oregon Department of Corrections, Amity Police Department, Warm Springs Police Department, Carlton Police Department, Yamhill Police Department, and he worked for Pac-Tac Security providing executive protection.

Dustin has received over 1735 documented hours of training with the Oregon Department of Public Safety, Desert Snow advanced interdiction, K9 academy- O.P.C.A. Security Threat Group. He is an instructor on the Taser less lethal electronic discharge weapon and Stop Stick pursuit termination device and has also served as a field training officer.

Dustin enjoys reading and writing and is a published author. He has been married for thirty-one years to his high school sweetheart in his own words.

As you can see, he brings a wealth of experience and training to the department, and we are glad to have him on board. During his interview, Dustin said he was looking for his last job that he can finish up before retirement. We hope he is happy here and this can be that job.

Patrolman Gary Bolin

Gary Bolin came to the department in August 2022. He is a lifelong resident of Cumberland County and graduated from the Cumberland County High School. Gary worked as a Deputy Sheriff with the Cumberland County Sheriff's Department from 1996 to 2003 and received training at the Tennessee Law Enforcement Training Academy as well as annual training of a minimum of 40 hours each year.

In his off-duty time, Gary serves as a youth shooting sports coach and enjoys sharing this sport with his son who is successful in competition.

Gary brings years of practical law enforcement experience and training with him that will enable him to be an asset to the department and we want to welcome to the family.
